

What is Electronic Exams?

Electronic exams are one of the modern means to measure and evaluate the educational process outcomes using computers and smart handheld devices. It is an effective alternative to traditional paper exams and flexible in all phases of the exam implementation.