

Course Description

EE603: Power System Operation and Control

An advanced level presentation of the theory and applications of power system operation and control. Economic operation of power systems, Unit generation commitment, On-line digital control, data acquisition: SCADA and Automatic Generation Control Systems, Voltage, frequency and reactive power control, Optimal control.