Dear Faculty Member

Please consider the following when using Blackboard for assessments :

- You can't modify a test while the students still taking this test.

- Students can be added to any test by the faculty member who is responsible for the course.

- When experiencing any technical issues, provide students with the opportunity to retake the test using an "alternative test" created in the same course.