Plagiarism Detection Tool
SafeAssign

- Creating a SafeAssign Assignment

- SafeAssign Reports

- Direct Submit
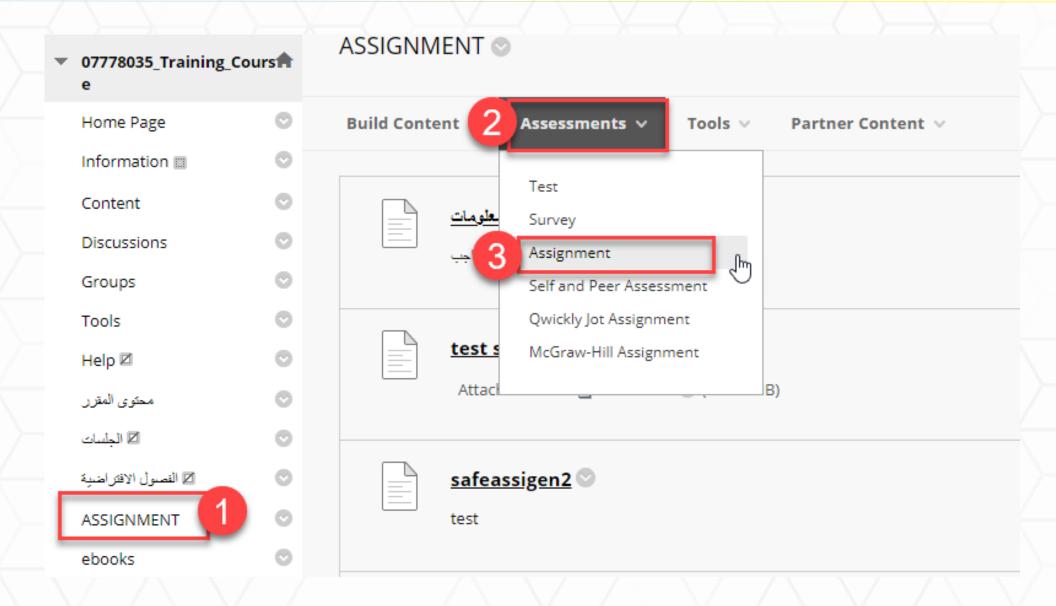

SafeAssign in Blackboard is a tool that is used to
1. Compare a submitted paper against a set of several databases containing sources and publications to detect plagiarism
2. Help students to properly cite sources rather than paraphrase.
3. It is both a prevention and educating service.

Blackboard Inc. is an educational technology company with corporate headquarters in Washington, D.C.. It is known for Blackboard Learn, a learning management system.[3]

The company's CEO is William L. Ballhaus, formerly president and CEO of SRA International, who was also named chairman and president, on January 4, 2016, following the resignation of Jay Bhatt, who had led Blackboard since October 2012.[4] The firm provides education, mobile, communication, and commerce software and related services to clients, including education providers, corporations and government organizations. The software consists of seven platforms called Learn, Transact, Engage, Connect, Mobile, Collaborate and Analytics, which are offered as bundled software. The firm was founded by Stephen Gilfus, Daniel Cane, Michael Chasen and Matthew Pittinsky[5] through a business combination in 1997, and became a public company in 2004. It operated publicly until it was purchased by Providence Equity Partners in 2011. As of January 2014, its software and services are used by approximately 17,000 schools and organizations in 100 countries.[6] Seventy-five percent of US colleges and universities and more than half of K–12 districts in the United States use its products and services,[7] and 80 percent of the world's top academic institutions reportedly use Blackboard tools, according to Times Higher Education Reputation Ranking.[8]
