

Policy for Providing Feedback on All Tasks

Policy Text:

The course instructor participating in teaching distance education courses through the e-learning system (Blackboard) must provide feedback on learners' submitted activities and assessments. The feedback should be accessible to learners through the system and should make use of available tools such as the "feedback to learner" feature in quizzes or assignments, ensuring that feedback is clear, constructive, and supports the learner's development.